Description Reviews \(1\)

With The Blueprint, Jay-Z took on anyone and everyone who wanted to sit on his throne, even the jesters. "Takeover," one of rap's most precise and unrelenting diss tracks, commits GBH on rappers Nas and Prodigy from Mobb Deep. When Hova isn't taking shots at record executives, cops, critics, haters, biters, and his absent dad (and still, sadly, using the word "faggot"), he inches toward vulnerability on "Song Cry." "Izzo (H.O.V.A.)" with dynamic production by Kanye West, gave him his first Top 10 single. Jay-Z elevates clever rhymes and innovations with an unmatched air of calm control and a cavalier confidence. Here's the moral of the story, courtesy of "Takeover": "You guys don't want it with HOV."
